

Weekly Log for the Week of October 17th

There was no exchange of emails. The only communication occurred in the weekly client meeting on October 5th.

The whole team was present there. We presented and discussed our UI mockups with the client along with gathering additional requirements.